HER BOY HAD ALWAYS BEEN WEAK AND PUNY

"My four year old boy had been weak and puny since birth, and had constipation and indigestion. Nothing did him any good until we tried Milks Emulsion. Since using it, he can't get enough to eat and has outgrown his childhood trouble. He plays out with the children now, and he was never able to do that before." —Wm. Hoart, 424 Bundy Ave., New Castle, Ind.

Weak, ailing children usually start eating and getting stronger from the very first bottle of Milks Emulsion.

Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action. Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is taken with a spoon like ice cream.

If you are urged to try Milks Emulsion Take no substitutes. Just use it according to directions. If not satisfied with the improvement money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20. Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists.

Moody Bible Students Volunteer To Replace Slain Missionaries

Accepting the slaying of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stam by communists in China as a challenge to Christianity, approximately 40 men and women students of the Moody Bible Institute dedicated themselves to missionary service in China. Twenty-one of the volunteers are shown in this photograph.

CHICAGO.—In a stirring demonstration of militant Christianity, approximately forty men and women answered the call of Dr. Will H. Houghton, president of the Moody Bible Institute here, for volunteers to take the places of Mr. and Mrs. John Stam recently slain by communists in China.

In memorial services to the two martyred missionaries, who were graduates from the Institute in 1931 and 1932, Dr. Houghton declared the killings were a challenge to Christianity, and added he was sure the challenge would be met.

At the conclusion of the memorial services, at which Dr. Houghton presided, he asked for those who would volunteer for service in foreign lands.

Electrified by the strong plea for a concrete answer to the martyrdom of the Stams, many in the crowded auditorium arose to their feet to dedicate themselves to missionary service. The picture above is of 21 present students who have China in view.

"This work," Dr. Houghton asserted, "calls for a vigorous manhood and womanhood—vigor in Faith, vigor in mind and in body and an unquenchable desire to serve even unto death for God and humanity."

Eighteen hundred and forty-eight men and women, former students of the Moody Bible Institute, have gone to the foreign fields.

Father DARKLEAF'S Column

Wherein the Editor Gets in a Personal Touch

Mother Brightleaf has just discovered that street cars have windshield wipers and stop lights.

• • •

And Father Darkleaf has just discovered Watt Abbitt's eye glasses.

• • •

And that Joel Flood is listed in the current Sigma Phi Epsilon journal as commonwealth's attorney of Appomattox county.

• • •

H. L. Maxwell, the bee sage of Pamplin, is just back from a 10,000 mile jaunt through the south and says: "Honest, fellow, things are looking up everywhere." Thanks and three cheers.

• • •

Nobody knows just how Father Darkleaf is itching to get at candidates cigars.

• • •

Uncle Charlie Brown over at the hotel now has 600 chicks to bother with. And what with four new bathrooms and a prediction by the visiting head of the national park bureau that our hotel would be needing additional rooms shortly when we can park out at the Surrender Grounds,— well things are 'looking up' here, too.

• • •

An Altavista lady came all the way to Appomattox this week for her dental work. Yowsah.

• • •

There's one application here for a $1,000 "baby bond."

• • •

Most of our readers counted those dots in that contest adv. last week —punching holes through'em with a pin or needle. There were some 5,400 odd, we hear.

• • •

We read in the Congressional that a petition has been filed from Concord Depot and Rustburg, Virginia, endorsing the old-age pensions.

• • •

And that E. LeRoy Smith was confirmed as local postmaster by the senate last week.

• • •

Congratulations to the Appomattox Hardware Co. Celebrating their 25th. birthday.

• • •

J. N. Meadows, of Roanoke was a pleasant visitor in the Times Virginia just a few moments ago and says that he can enjoy this column more now that he has SEEN Father Darkleaf.

• • •

Note to prospective candidates: some years ago while with another newspaper a man who had been a candidate came into our office and begged us not to publish the list of how many votes each candidate got as he didn't want to be shown up. (We published the list)

Col. Flood Not To Run For Va. Senate

Mrs. S. L. Ferguson Also Declines To Enter Political Race

Col. Joel W. Flood has announced that he will not be a candidate for the seat of the late S. L. Ferguson in the senate, subject to the August primaries this year.

He based his decision, in reply to widespread advocacy of his making the race, on the fact of business connections. He had been assured that he would not have had opposition in the four counties comprising the district.

Following this announcement, Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, widow of the late senator, was asked by many prominent leaders in the district to run. However, Mrs. Ferguson likewise declined to enter the political arena, in which her husband was so eminently outstanding. She, however, expressed her gratitude for the confidence reposed in her.

These announcements leave the political situation in the district nearer or less up in the air, with considerable speculation as to who the candidate or candidates might be.

It is known that Charlotte county wants to present a candidate, probably Kent Early, commonwealth attorney. This paper has not been advised, however, of any final decision as to his entering the race. Mr. Early was in Appomattox last Saturday and again Tuesday.

Many prominent men in Appomattox and Buckingham have had their names mentioned, including: Claude Wood, Harry Griffin, R. L. Burke, H. W. McKinney, J. R. Horseley, C. T. Moses, Robert Garrette and several others. However, so far as we are advised, there are also no official candidates to date and it is predicted that the traditional harmony of recent years will govern the selection of a successor to the section by the late Hal Flood and Samuel Lewis Ferguson.

To Speak Here

Miss Grace Leigh Scott, national grand speaker of the W. C. T. U. will be here on March 27 and will speak at a special services at the Memorial Methodist church, it was announced this morning by Mrs. W. L. Ould.

This will be a union service and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Candidates For May Queen Are Announced By Each School

A county-wide "Health Day" is being planned for this county, featuring a gala crowning of the May Queen with appropriate festivities here on May 3.

County-wide five point health certificates will be awarded at that time.

Each school will have a candidate for the honor of being county ate for May Queen, one municipality May Queen. Votes for candidates for county May Queen will cost one cent each, and one can vote as many times as one likes. The funds, payable to the various principals, are to be used for school purposes.

The following list of candidates for May Queen has been announced for the various schools:

Hope Cralle, Evergreen school.

Elsie Carson, Spout Spring school.

Hazel Cheatham, Woodland school.

Hazel Lee Coleman, Liberty Chapel school.

Naomi Ferguson, Vera school.

Corn Lee Gilliam, Pamplin school.

Nellie Jennings, Stonewall school.

Alice Mayberry, Petty's Fork school.

Ruby Martin, Oakville school.

Irene Page, Mount Comfort school.

Reva Robertson, Appomattox school.

Miss Elaine McDearmon will collect the votes for the candidate of Appomattox high school.

The contest will end on April 12, at which time the May Queen will be announced.

As a special feature of the May Day program here on May 3, professor W. T. Smith announces a baseball game between the "fats" and the "leans."

"Pop" Wilkins will captain the "fats" into battle, and Calvin H. Robinson, lean and lank editor of the Times Virginian, will pilot the "leans." Dame Rumor has it that professor L. Crawley will play for the "fats."

VERA

Vera, March 13.- April showers bring forth May flowers, but since this is March we hardly know how to prophesy unless we say, "More rain more rest."

The W. M. U. of New Hope Baptist church, held an all day meeting in the home of Mrs. Ivrod Conner last Wednesday. Mrs. Charles Beall and Mrs. Edna Patteson taught a mission book entitled: "Where Is He", in the morning.
